☞ Notice.

DIFFICULTIES arising from the nature of the following work, the publisher has been compelled to remove to Philadelphia for the better execution of his plan. The editorial department has in consequence fallen into other hands. Mr. ALLEN'S present engagement rendering it impossible to superintend it in another city. The friends and relations of the different signers to the Declaration of Independence are therefore requested to direct their favors to the publisher, No. 443, Market-street, Philadelphia.

PROPOSALS

By Joseph M. Sanderson,

For Publishing by Subscription,

A Biography of the Signers

OF THE

Declaration of Independence,

Accompanied with Plates.

To which will be annexed a History of the Proceedings of Congress, during the passage of the Law, and the Declaration itself, with the fac simile Engravings of the Signatures.

By JOHN SANDERSON.

TO THE PUBLIC.

When we consider the personal qualities of the statesmen whose names are affixed to the Declaration of Independence, the perilous occasion which demanded the exercise of their wisdom and deliberation, and the influence of their councils on the interests of mankind, we must acknowledge that very rarely a more imposing spectacle has been offered to the world, and we shall seek in vain in the annals of nations, for an event more worthy of commemoration, and of being cherished forever in the hearts of a grateful and generous people. The love of independence is interwoven with the frame and constitution of the human mind. It is almost the first sentiment that animates the infant's features in the cradle; and amongst all the actions and enterprizes of man, none has awaked into activity a greater exertion of the virtuous energies of his nature, none has excited a greater warmth of veneration, and has more imperious claims upon our gratitude, than resistance to tyranny and political aggression.

In all republican states the first tribute of genius has been paid to the patriot or the hero who has promoted the cause of liberty and maintained the independence and dignity of man. The animated canvas and breathing marble have rescued his features from the grasp of death, and the pen of the historian has inscribed the achievements to the imperishable records of fame. It would indeed be no favorable prognostic of the perpetuity of our republican institutions to discover an insensibility to the obligations we owe the memory of the illustrious patrons of American freedom. They have raised us, by their magnanimity, from the arbitrary dominion of a foreign power, to the distinguished elevation of a sovereign and independent people; they have asserted and maintained the imprescriptible rights of humanity by the "mutual pledge of their pledge of their lives, their fortunes and their sacred honors;" and, as long as virtue holds her empire in the hearts of their successors, the example of these generous benefactors will not be lost to the world; their names will not pass away nor be forgotten, or their glorious deeds be confounded in the common and casual transaction of life.—Ingratitude is a vice that in nations, as well as individuals, indicates the last degree of degeneracy and corruption; it is a vice that implies the absence of every virtue; it was in the age of Caligula that the name of the Scipios was proscribed, that the state of Brutus brought death on its possessor.

"The glory of our ancestors is the light of posterity," and the homage of the living cannot be offered to the merits of the illustrious dead with an effectual or sterile admiration. Great and splendid actions will seldom be achieved by men who have humble or ordinary objects in prospect. It is by contemplating the life and character of those who are marked out from the multitude by their eminent qualities, that we become emulous of their virtues and their renown. The trophies of Miltiades interrupted the sleeps of Themistocles; and Theseus, hearing the exploits of Hercules, was fired with his spirit, and became the successful rival of his fame. The rude savage of the desert listens with rapture to the deeds of his ancestors, and hangs around his hut the emblems of his father's valour.

More need not be said to enforce the utility of the publication we have undertaken, and which we now submit to the patronage of our fellow-citizens, with a hope, that from the liberality of their encouragement, we shall be able to present it to the public worthy of their approbation. We must depend for the illustration of many of the characters of our biography, upon the generosity of their surviving relatives and friends, to furnish us with whatever interesting materials may be in their possession; for which, with our grateful acknowledgments, we promise a copy of the entire work as a compensation.

CONDITIONS.

I. The work will be published in numbers or half volumes of 200 pages, octavo, and contained in ten numbers. To the first will be prefixed an appropriate frontispiece—and the work will be commenced with the declaration of independence, with engraved fac similes of the signatures, and a compendious detail of the proceedings of congress, during the passage of the law. Each of the lives, unless when it is impracticable, will be preceded by a likeness of the person, engraved by the best artists in the United States.

II. It will be printed on fine paper, made expressly for the purpose, and delivered to subscribers at two dollars and fifty cents per number, payable on delivery.

I SAW FROM THE BEACH

AIR—"MISS MOLLY."

I saw from the beach when the morning was shining,
A bark o'er the waters move glorious on;
I came when the sun o'er that beach was declining— [were gone.
The bark was still there, but the waters

Ah! such is the fate of our life's early promise, [known:
So passing the spring tides of joys we have
Each wave that we danced on at morning ebbs from us. [alone!
And leaves us, at eve, on the bleak shore

Ne'er tell me the glories serenely adorning
The close of our day, the calm eve of our night— [ness of Morning.
Give me back, give me back, the wild freshHer clouds and her tears are worth Evening's best light.

Oh! who would not welcome that moment's returning, [his frame,
When passion first wak'd a new life thro'
And his soul, like the wood that grows precious in burning,
Gave out all its sweets to love's exquisite flame.

SLEEP.

The late rev. Wesley used to assert, that six hours sleep was sufficient for a man, seven hours for a woman, eight hours for a a child, and nine hours for a pig.

ANECDOTE OF OLD HICKORY.

At the attack on N. Orleans, after general Jackson had thrown up his cotton fortification, a Frenchman came to him and complained that he had taken 150 bales of his cotton; that they were in the breast work, and that he must have them, or be indemnified. Gen' Jackson, having listened to him attentively, called to one of his men, and ordered a musket, cartouch box, &c. to be immediately brought to him—"There (said he, addressing himself to the Frenchman) take these—no man has a better right to defend this cotton than yourself—see that you do it faithfully"—and immediately ordered him into the ranks.

EFFECT OF ARGUMENT ON A KENTUCKIAN.

A member of congress from Kentucky, who had voted in favor of the compensation bill, was going the rounds amongst his constituents previous to the election; and amongst other arguments which he offered in vindication of his vote, in an address to a large audience, he urged the difference of the price of provisions—and to shew that greater difference than those existing between Kentucky and Washington city occurred, assured them that in Russia he had been compelled to pay 10 shillings for a chicken. Some little time after, passing a little group of his auditors who were regaling themselves with a little grog, and believing he had satisfied every one of the propriety of his vote for 1500 dolls. per annum—he overheard one of the party remark to his companions—"there goes that d—d fool that gave ten shillings for a chicken."

A baronet of considerable notoriety addressing himself to lord Thurlow, poured out a torrent of invective and raillery against the clergy, and ended his sublime oration with "what do you think my lord, are they not a batch of hyprocrites and greedy gluttons?" "All that you have said Mr. F. only proves that clergymen are men. Where they once do violence to good morality, you do it fifty times. But to rail against the clergy is an old stale trick; and they who do not esteem them, don't know them."

From Capt. Sinclair's Cursory Remarks on the British Army.

A captain of a company in the guards came to the grand parade, to attend his regiment to Hyde Park, on a general field day: after parading it in front of the regiment several minutes in search of his company which he could not find, he turned to the adjutant, and requested to know why it was not formed with the battalion?

The adjutant replied it was, and pointed to the company. The mistake produced no small diversion to the other officers, who thought the captain might at least have known his non-commissioned officers, and by them his company. The captain assured them that he had always known his company before, by a man in it with a large nose—and this man having been unluckily left sick at the barracks, he was unable to distinguish his company from among the others.

THE BEAU.

A beau dressed out is as the cinnamon tree—the bark is worth more than the body.—An ass is but an ass though laden or covered with gold.

ALEXANDRIA:
MONDAY MORNING, November 22.

The National Intelligencer states, that the Hon. J. C. CALHOUN, Secretary of War, was taken dangerously ill, at Rockingham county, North Carolina, on his return to the seat of government.

The Governor of Pennsylvania has issued a Proclamation recommending Thursday, the 9th of December, to be observed by all denominations of Christians throughout the state, as a day of humiliation, thanksgiving and prayer.

A correspondent of the Albany Daily Advertiser mentions, that it was satisfactorily ascertained, at the late Fair in the county of Scoharie, that the crop of wheat in that county, had been so abundant the present season, as to allow one hundred thousand bushels for market, over and above what would be necessary for its own consumption; and of rye, corn and other grain, there would also be a surplus of between two and three hundred thousand bushels.

From the Delaware Watchman.

DUEL.

Captain Robinson on board of a sloop from this place, which was aground near Red Bank, opposite Fort Mifflin, on Sunday last, distinctly saw a duel fought on the shore near him, by persons whom he had seen cross in boats from the Fort. At the first fire one of the parties fell, and was conveyed across the river mortally wounded, (as far as Capt. R. could judge from circumstances.)

Probably the parties were officers, and the victim, no doubt, has not only thrown away his own life, but may wilfully add to the list of widows and orphans, and carried mournings and distress into many families of relatives, and severe regret into many more of friends. We are glad to find the popular pen of Howard employed on this subject.

Greensburgh, (Penn.) Nov. 12.

MELANCHOLY ACCIDENT.

On Saturday night last, Mr. Benjamin Blithe, in company with a neighbor, left the Brick Tavern, six miles east of Greensburg, for the purpose of going to a husking. A few yards from the door of the tavern is a well, from which the pump had been removed; the night being extremely dark, Mr. Blithe mistook his way, having dug the well himself, and fell into it, from which, we are informed, he was taken a corpse. He was esteemed an honest man and a good citizen.

From the Niagara Patriot, Nov. 9.

SINGULAR.

The rain which fell in this village and vicinity during the storm on Saturday night last, was deeply tinged with some black substance, somewhat resembling soot, so as to discolor the windows, fences, &c. almost as much as if sprinkled with ink.—We have heard no reason assigned for this phenomenon.

Boston, Nov. 13.

SERIOUS FIRE.

This evening between 7 and 8 o'clock, a fire commenced in the ropewalk, occupied by Mr. Edward Adams, at the bottom of the Common, which was entirely consumed, together with the two walks to the north east, belonging to Mr. Samuel Emmons, and Henry Chapman & Co. The newly erected manufactory owned by Messrs. Winslow, Lewis & Co. was also injured, as well as the house and furniture of Mr. Tuckerman, a baker. Thus of five ropewalks, one only, occupied by Mr. Joseph N. Howe, was preserved from the flames. The wind blowing strongly from N. West appeared to endanger not only every contiguous walk, but all the buildings in the neighborhood; the flakes of fire were carried over the roofs of the houses, and threatened destruction to buildings situated at a great distance.

It was about six weeks since Messrs. Winslow, Lewis & Co's. manufactory of patent rope, was burned, not without strong suspicions of incendiary villainy and the recurrence of another fire, following so soon afterwards, warrants the alarming conclusion, that a similar attempt has occasioned the present misfortune.

New-York, Nov. 16.

CORONER'S STATEMENT.

Considerable excitement having been produced on the public mind, by exaggerated stories and fanciful speculations, in consequence of finding a number of human bones, hair, &c. and marks of blood, in the cellar of the new church, building in Fayette-st. and of the supposition that a murder has been perpetrated there—the Coroner deems it an imperious duty, not less to his fellow citizens generally, than to the inhabitants of that vicinity, to state, that the finding of any part of a human body is a fabrication; but, the marks of blood and human hair were perfectly visible, and there is no doubt but that a murder has been committed. He has recently made very diligent search, but without any success. He shall not relax in the duty enjoined upon him as a public officer, and his feelings as a man, to find out and bring to condign punishment, the perpetrator or perpetrators of this diabolical and wicked act.

Darien, (Geo.) Nov. 8.

To-day commences in this city, the first session of the superior court for the county of M'Intosh, under a late act of the general assembly. His honor Judge Berrien presides. The important trial of colonel John L. Hopkins and general Francis Hopkins, his father, for the murder of M'Queen M'Intosh, comes on.

From the Franklin Gazette.

Extract of a letter to the editors, dated Madrid, Sept. 13, 1819.

"Yesterday the duke of San Fernando was appointed secretary of state and despatch, answering to our secretary of state. Salmon, who was acting as such, is made minister to Saxony. No person is designated to go to the United States. The duke of San Fernando was selected, but was, on his earnest solicitation, excused by the king. The duke, who is connected by marriage with the reigning family, was apprehensive he should not, in the present posture of affairs, receive in America the attention his rank and royal connexion entitled him to expect. His character is said to be good.

"The fever among the troops in the vicinity of Cadiz still rages with violence.

"The treaty between Spain and Portugal for the delivery of Montevideo to the former, is not yet agreed upon. It begins to be questioned whether Portugal means ever to make one."

LATEST FROM THE STRAITS.

Captain Rogers, of the Minerva Smith, from Leghorn, informs, that the U. S. ship Franklin, 74, and the sloop of war Spark, were to sail next day for Gibraltar. The U. S. ship Erie was waiting at Gibraltar for the arrival of the Commodore, and was to proceed immediately for the United States, with dispatches [New-York Gaz.

Mr. Kean, the comedian, has abandoned his expedition to America.

Norfolk, Nov. 17.

The Royal Gazette of Hayti, for the month of October, received at the Reading Room by the schr. George, captain Butler, contains among other articles of less interest, the following quotations of colonial produce.

Coffee, prime, 14 dolls. per 100 lbs. do. middling, 13; brown sugar, 1st quality 6; do. middling 5; cocoa 8; indigo 75 cts. per lb. molasses 50 cents per velt.—At Gonaives coffee was 50 cts. per 100 lbs. and sugars 2 dolls. 50 cts. to 3 per 100 lbs. higher than at Cape Henry.

The Gazette of the 28th October gives an account of a sloop sent into Cape Henry by the Venezuelian privateer Elcoram, captain Lamini, ; the sloop had the remains of a cargo of rice and flour on board; the prize master stated that the Elcaroni, being off the island of Cuba, discovered two strange sail, to which she gave chace, and immediately came up with the above sloop, which on taking possession of, found not a soul or paper on board of her. They manned and ordered her for Margaritta, but her distressed condition compelled the private crew to put into cape Henry.

Captain Butler adds to the account which he heard at Cape Henry, viz.

That the above sloop (no doubt American, and supposed to belong to Philadelphia) had been found abandoned, as above stated, off the Cuba shore, having been previously plundered by a pirate of 200 bbls. gunpowder, about 150 bbls. flour, besides lard, butter, &c. a prize master and four men were put on board of her, but in a few days she was recaptured by another pirate who took out all her crew then on board, manned her with a crew from his own vessel, and anchored her off Tortugas. A short time after a brig hove in sight, the piratical captain immediately returned the former prize crew to the sloop, with two Dutch passengers which he also had on board, took back his own prize crew, and after taking out as much of her cargo as he could find room for, gave her up to the first pirates. The brig was laden with dry goods, which the piratical captain found so much more valuable than the sloop's cargo, that he was compelled to throw the latter overboard to make room for the plunder of the brig. Captain B. did not understand where the brig was from, or where she belonged. A considerable part of the sloop's cargo was afterwards found floating, and picked up by different vessels.

OUR AFFAIRS WITH SPAIN.

Conjecture has wearied itself in attempts to discover something like a rational motive for Ferdinand's rejection of the treaty. For our part we have from the first suspected the influence of a third power as the cause—the silence and apparent unconcern of our own government upon the subject to the contrary notwithstanding. We have just received fr. a gentlemen in Spain, information of a fact, which considering the strong corroborating circumstances in its favor, we cannot discredit, though we would gladly do so:—It is that Ferdinand was not at liberty to ratify the treaty any more than Don Onis was to agree to the cession of Florida "The Floridas (says our information, which, we repeat, does not rest on a slight foundation) were already ceded to England by secret treaty, Our information adds, that this fact was officially communicated to the department of state at Washington." From many circumstances which have come to our knowledge (it is unnecessary to say by what means) we do not hesitate to give it as our opinion, that although it may be the fact that considerable grants of Florida lands have been made by the king of Spain, to the Duke of Allegon and others, which were not guaranteed by the treaty, and although the treaty has met with all the opposition from the grantees which they or their friends could raise, yet the rejection of the treaty is not ascribed to that influence. British intrigue is known to be the primary cause—the great obstacle to its ratification.

The United States sloop of war Hornet, having arrived at Gibraltar, Capt, Reid, her commander, immediately proceeded to Madrid without meeting with any interruption which was much apprehended from the rigor of the health regulations.

From the subjoined order of the Spanish court it will be perceived, that the Duke of San Fernando, is not destined to be the envoy extraordinary from Spain to the United States, as we intimated a short time since.—The duke we understand declined the office, Who is to be appointed to that station was not publicly known at the last dates from Madrid; it is stated however, on the authority of a letter from that capital, that "the man who has so long guided and controlled the councils of the king is to be disgraced, or will succeed to the office intended for the duke San Fernando in the United States."

Madrid-Gazette, Sept. 14.

OFFICIAL INTELLIGENCE.

The king has been pleased to issue the following decree:

"In consideration of the merit which has distinguished my counsellor of state, the duke of San Fernando, I have appointed him my first secretary of State and despatch; and in consideration of the satisfactory manner in which you have discharged the duties of the same department, ad interim, I have thought proper to appoint you minister plenipotentiary to the court of Saxony. You will understand it so, and make the requisite dispositions for the due execution thereof."

Signed for the king.

Palace, Sept. 12. 1819.

To Don Manuel Gonzalez Salmon.

As yet no opinion can be formed of the sentiments of the new minister of state towards this country, or of the influence he may possess.

We further learn from the above source, that gen. Salcedo, who formerly commanded in the interior provinces of Mexico, has been called from one of the provinces of the north of Spain, where he has been living since 1815, in retirement, to be sent as minister to the United States, but refused to go. The general is said to be now 80 years of age, a plain military man, and never by habit or education possessed the qualifications for a diplomatic mission. Here we may perceive a strong evidence of the sincerity of Spain in making the appointment of envoy extraordinary to adjust all points of difference with the United States. [Norfolk Herald.

We are positively assured that the grand expedition at Cadiz is abandoned, and so great is the mortification at the necessity of it, that it is deemed infamous in the capital to speak of it. The only object now is to find a decent excuse for it. They however will have a very good one by this time, for we are informed that the FEVER having got amongst the troops and in the fleet, was sweeping off all with an unsparing hand.—The admiral's ship at Cadiz was most fatally afflicted. The Money too, which was required, could not be spared for so frivolous a purpose as a military expedition to quell a revolution, being more pressingly wanted for—the King's marriage in which more than a million would be necessary. The Royal bride was expected to enter Madrid on the 10th Oct. [Ibid.

It is said that Mr. Forsyth has made a peremptory demand on behalf of his government, for a considerable number of American prisoners in Spanish prisons, who did not enter into the Patriot service, but were trepanned by designing officers under false pretences; and that he has required a statement of charges against others.

Capt. Brown of the privateer Constitution, died in Cadiz hospital, on the 20th September. [Ibid.

MERMAIDS.

Naturalists have hitherto doubted the existence of Mermaids and Mermen: We have it now in our power to set at rest the doubts of sceptics upon this complex order of animals, one having been lately discovered basking upon the rock of Derrygimle, in Erresberg (Cunmars) after the ebbing of the tide.

It was discovered by a female of the lower order, who was them about four months pregnant; she was suddenly startled by a kind of scream, which was followed by the plunging of an animal half female and half fish, her lower extremities having the formation of a dolphin. This woman was so terrified as to miscarry, and has never been able to leave her bed since; the tide having out, the animal had some difficulty in reaching the wafer. Thomas Evans Esq. of Cleggan, a gentleman well known to many of our readers, just arrived upon the coast in time to witness her last plunges; having gained the water, she disappeared for a few moments, but again appeared perfectly composed; Mr. Evans had now a favorable opportunity of examining this long doubted genius—it was about the size of a well grown child of ten years of age, a bosom prominent as a girl of sixteen; a profusion of long dark brown hair; full dark eyes, hands and arms formed like the human species, with a slight web connecting the upper part of the fingers, which were frequently employed in throwing back her flowing locks, and running them through her hair; her movements in the water seemed principally directed by the fin at any extremity; for near an hour she remained in apparent tranquility, in view of upwards of 300 persons, until a musket was levelled at her, which having flashed in the pan, she immediately dived, and was not afterwards seen. Mr. Evans declares she did not appear to him to posses the power of speech, for her looks appeared vacant, and there was an evident want of intelligence. As this is the season of the fishery, we are in hopes some of our fisherman may draw her in their nets; as it is extremely probable at the time she was first discovered, she was in search of some place to deposit her young. We understand several depositions upon oath as to this animal's appearance are to be made. We are promised a more minute description, which we shall be happy to lay before our readers.

From the Connecticut Journal.

HARD TIMES—HARD TIMES—HARD TIMES.

The cry of Hard Times so frequently meets the ear, that my curiosity led me the other day, to examine into the fact and the cause of it, so far as regards this city. The first objects which arrested my attention, were two bands. Enquiring of an intelligent friend concerning their operations, I was told that their capital was loaned out, and principally in this city on notes drawing 6 per cent interest, and payable in six days. These loans were made to merchants, farmers, mechanics, professional men, &c. &c. and that much more could be loaned, had the banks the capacity to gratify all the borrowers. I said to myself, if people are thus indebted, and all their debts are on interest, no wonder the cry is

Hard Times—Hard Times—Hard Times

In walking down Chappel street about 12 o'clock, my attention was arrested by a great number of Ladies, elegantly dressed, with gold watches gracefully suspended at their sides highly ornamented, which seemed to me not only to announce the time of day, but also

Hard Times—Hard Times—Hard Times

In returning through the same street I was struck with the display of from fifty to sixty Leghorn bonnets, trimmed in the modern fashion and affording a shade to the side walks almost equal to so many umbrellas.—These cost from 15 to 30 dollars a piece.

Hard Times—Hard Times—Hard Times

At this moment I heard a noise behind me like that made by a poney cantering over the pavements. Looking round I saw at least a dozen Dandies with high-heeled boots, well secured with steel or iron—wide pantaloons of the very tip top tissime style—narrow coats, and corsets, so arranged that they resembled wasps—great coats of plaid or broadcloth, with a multitude of cape—cravats extending beyond the brims of the dandissime hats—and watch chains sparkling with gems and crystals. "Thinks I to myself,"

Hard Times—Hard Times—Hard Times

Almost absorbed in these reflections I was nigh being run over by a hack and gig, cost at least 600 dollars.—The driver was trying to put his horse up to to the speed of 14 miles an hour upon a trot, ala-mode New-York. I involuntarily exclaimed as I fled from this scene—

Monstrous Hard Times.

At a jeweller's shop some young ladies were just putting into their ears

ULES, (which by the way cost about 5 dollars each—N. B. My grandmother used to wear pockets that were made out of half a yard of linen check)—some ear-rings topaz set in gold—(that same grandmother used to wear brass earrings —of the price of $15 each, and two or three bosom pins of the same brilliant appearance. A door or two beyond there were at least half a dozen belles purchasing at a Ladies' shoe-maker, some very beautiful kid boots, with tassels, buckles, &c. Directly opposite a highly decorated shop attracted my notice. I attempted to take a peep into the door, but the one horse wagons and gigs filled up the p-ssage. It was a milliner's shop, crowded with ladies, bonnets, hats, feathers, (I believe they are called plumes in these times) ribbons, laces, &c. &c. Bandboxes were as thick as cocks of hay in a meadow, in July. Oh dear! said I,

What dreadful hard times.

But there was one scene presented with which I cannot indulge any humor. There are in this city, justly respected for several elegant and costly Churches devoted to public worship, and for much attention to religion and morals, from 15 to 20 grog shops or tippling houses, open at all hours from day light in the morning to 12 o'clock at night. In passing these haunts of vice who that is not stupid, does not see written in legible characters, "The way to hell leading down to the chambers of death." In these houses we are obliged to see, from time to time, those who are preparing for the poor-house, the jail and Newgate. To these scenes of drunkenness, wives can trace the loss of husbands, parents the loss of children, masters and guardians, the loss of apprentices and wards, and society, the loss of many useful members. Here, property is squandered---morals are corrupted--- and intoxication openly indulged. Here too, the youth is seduced to certain and dreadful destruction, and the old man grows worse and worse. Surely said I

The times are hard, very hard.

Extracts from a Law

Of the Corporation to provide for the speedy extinguishment of Fire, &c.

Sec 1. That every proprietor of any dwelling house, or store house within the limits of the corporation, shall, at his or her own expence, provide as many fire buckets, made of good and suitable leather, and containing at least two and a half gallons, as shall be equal in number to the stories in such house. Provided, That no proprietor shall, in any case be compelled to provide more than three buckets for one house. Every proprietor who shall neglect to procure the proper number of buckets in the manner herein directed, shall forfeit and pay one dollar per month for each bucket he shall so neglect to procure. The proprietors of all dwelling houses and store houses which shall hereafter be erected within the corporation, shall furnish the same with buckets in the manner before prescribed, within two months after such houses shall be occupied; or failing to do so, shall be subject to the penalties before mentioned.

2. Where the proprietor of any dwelling house or store house residing out of the limits of the corporation, shall neglect to comply with the requisitions of this act, the occupier of such house shall within two months after coming to the possession thereof, procure the necessary buckets; and failing to provide the same, shall be subject to the like penalties as are in such case imposed on the proprietor.

5. It shall be the duty of the superintendent of police, once in six months at least, to visit the houses within the limits of the corporation to examine and take an account of the buckets belonging to such houses, and to report to the mayor the names of all persons who shall neglect to provide and keep the same, according to the requisitions of this act. pa. 31&32. Round Hill for Sale.

BY virtue of a deed of trust from Daniel M'Pherson and wife to me, under date of the 30th of May, 1816, and for the purposes therein prescribed, I shall sell at public auction, on the premises, on FRIDAY the 10th of December next, a tract of land in the county of Fairfax, known by the name of lying on the stage or Colchester road, distant about 6 miles from Alexandria, and containing 148½ acres, more or less;—reserving however, to George Triplett his right to a moiety of the dwelling house and yard. The land has been very considerably improved by judicious cultivation, and there are now growing crops of small grain upon it.

Also, one other tract, being an equal undivided moiety of a tract of land in the same county, contiguous to the foregoing, supposed to contain 25 acres 2 poles.

The terms of sale will be made known at the time and place of sale.

100 Dollars Reward.

RAN AWAY on the 25th of April last, a man called NED, formerly the property of Mr. Fitzhugh, of Fairfax, and by him sold to Hepburn & Dundas. He had on when he went away an old country blue and white cloth coat, and kersey trowsers—his right hand in a sling, in consequence of the kick of a horse. Ned is a stupid looking fellow, and hesitates very much when he speaks. I will give fifty dollars if apprehended in the District, or the above reward for apprehending him out of the District, so that I get him again.

Fifty Dollars Reward.

RAN AWAY from the subscriber, on Thursday, the 11th inst. a negro man, named DICK, who sometimes calls himself Dick Douglas. He is a small man about 5 feet 6 inches high, and is not a very black man. I purchased him from the estate of Edgar McCarty, esq. Cedar Grove, Fairfax county, Va. and it is likely that he may be lurking about that neighborhood or Colchester, as he has a wife at capt. Berry's of the latter place; or he may have gone to Loudoun county, as he has lived there in the neighborhood of Wm. McCarty and John McCarty, near Leesburg. He had on and took with him an old grey cloth coat and a brown do pantaloons of drab colored domestic cloth. He is much addicted to liquor, and is a coarse shoemaker. I will give 20 dollars if taken in the district of Columbia. Thirty dollars if taken in Fairfax county, and the above reward if apprehended in any other place, and secured so that I get him again; and reasonable charges if brought home. WM. B. STUART.

RAN away from the subscriber living in King George's county Va. on Monday the 22nd March, a yellow man named about 22 years of age, his fore teeth wide apart, and cannot speak very quick—had on Virginia cloth clothes and carried off a shaggy great coat, he has a father named Peter Hall, who lives with the widow Morgan, at Oak Hill, Fauquier Co. and his grandfather, old Frederick Hall, is supposed to be living at Mr. Terrett's near Alexandria, and it is likely he may be lurking about there.—I will give the above reward for apprehending and securing said fellow so that I get him again, and reasonable charges if brought home. 100 Dollars Reward.

RAN AWAY from the subscriber, living near Aldie, Loudoun county, Virginia, on the night of the 11th inst. a negro man, who calls his name NED BURGES. He is a shrewd, intelligent negro, about 5 feet 7 or 8 inches high; 30 years of age, well made, active and polite. Had on when he went away, a sky colored coat, and corded pantaloons. His right eye sore, apparently occasioned by a blow, the blood having settled around it. His ears have been pierced, and had green silk in them when he went away. It is expected he is now lurking about Fairfax court-house and Aldie. The above Ned Burges ran away on the night of the 25th of last Aug. and was caught on the 11th inst. on the night of which he effected his elopement by drawing the staple to which he was fastened by the handle of a pan, while there was no person in the kitchen but himself. He was caught on the 11th inst. a few miles below Aldie, but I think it improbable that he has gone near the same place again. I will give 100 dollars if he is taken out of the county, and fifty if taken in the county, and secured so that I get him again, and all reasonable charges if brought home. GEO. GULICK.

P S. It is supposed that the said negro has obtained papers of freedom, or a free pass, or something of the kind. G. G.

100 Dollars Reward.

I WILL give the above reward to any person who will return to my possession, negro LAWRENCE, who assumes the sirname of FENWICK. This fellow left my farm, on the Wicomico river, in Charles county, Md. on the 6th July, in consequence of his own outrageous conduct towards my overseer. He is a negro of a five erect figure, good features, asmooth black skin, rather above the middle stature, of a youthful appearance for one of thirty years of age, and of great plausibility and natural smartness. His ears grow remarkably close to his head, and on the inside of his lower lip he has a white mark or spot. I purchased him 4 years ago of the estate of Mrs. P. H. Courts, of this county. I am led (by circumstances which have come to my knowledge since he absconded,) to believe that he will endeavor to make his way to King George county, Va.; should he not take this route, he will probably be met with in the District of Columbia, or in the upper counties of this state, on his way to Pennsylvania. I apprehend he will change his name, and if committed to jail, refuse to state to whom he belongs, as the misconduct which preceded his departure, & his absconding, have all appeared since to have been premeditated. He took all his clothes with him, of which he had a large number; among them—a new bearskin over-coat, a long close-bodied blue coat, a pair of striped jean pantaloons, one or more white waistcoats, besides many articles of coarse cloathing; these, however, he will probably exchange, or sell them for cash to defray his travelling expenses.

I will give the above reward to any person who will bring him home to me, or FIFTY DOLLARS if confined in jail, and notice given me, so that I recover him.—Should be be taken out of the state, I will also pay all reasonable costs and charges which may attend the bringing him home.

S. Drew, Merchant Tailor,

Removed from Fairfax-street to the corner of King and Columbus streets, and his prices falling,

RESPECTFULLY acquaints his customers and the citizens in general that he has removed as above, where he will study to give satisfaction. He has by him a small but well assorted stock of goods, which will be found on inspection to be of the best quality, the whole of which he wishes to sell low for cash, and as further inducements to purchasers he offers to cut out any goods, bought of him to any size or pattern gratis,

S. Drew aware, of the advantage a ready money business has over one where long credit is given, thinks that a distinction ought to be made in the prices in each case; and as the price of provisions are low at present, he is glad to be able to announce to those customers who will feel disposed to pay him ready money for his work, that he will reduce the price of making to them according to the present journeymen's wages; and to prevent any supposed imposition on the one hand or disatisfaction on the other he is willing to be governed by the printed regulations of prices by which the journeymen are paid in Alexandria.

N. B. Bread, flour, beef, groceries, liquors or any thing valuable taken in exchange for clothes.

S. Drew has this day opened a tavern in the same house, where he has laid in a supply of Philadelphia and the district porter and ale, together with liquors of the best quality, and he feels confident that he shall be able to give satisfaction to all who will please to favor him with a call.—He is fitting up his house for the accommodation of boarders, travellers, &c. and from its central situation, good beds and stabling, together with other requisites, he presumes that it will be found a convenient establishment.
